

INVESTOR FACT SHEET

Coeur d'Alene Mines Corp

(NYSE: CDE, TSX: CDM, ASX: CXC)

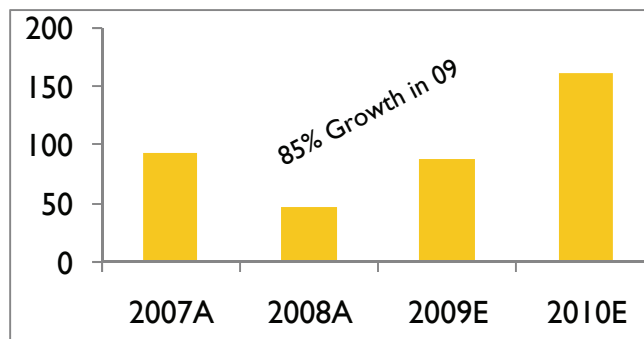

The largest, US-based publicly traded silver producer, as well as a significant gold producer.

Industry Leading Production Growth

Silver (in millions of oz)

Gold (in thousands of oz)

Diverse Asset Base

Est Contribution to 2009 silver production

1 million ounces
Re-start expected in 2010
3 million ounces
9 million ounces
2 million ounces
5.3 million ounces silver
New

Mine Site

Rochester, Nevada, USA (silver and gold)
Cerro Bayo, Chile (silver and gold)
Martha, Argentina (silver)
San Bartolomé, Bolivia (silver)
Endeavor and Broken Hill, Australia (silver operating interests)
Palmarejo, Mexico (silver & gold)—March 09 start; annual run rate 9MM
Kensington, Alaska, USA (gold)—2010 startup (125k ounces gold/yr)

Focus on Cost Management

Coeur expects to have cash operating costs per ounce (excluding taxes and royalties) of $4.25 per ounce in 2009. Coeur has recently reduced G&A costs 22% and continues to rationalize its operations.

Compelling Valuation

Coeur, which leads the primary silver producers with 248 million ounces of proven and probable silver reserves and 2.3 million in gold reserves, had a market capitalization of approximately $800 million as of June 24, 2009.

News flow in 2009

- Ramp up of production at Palmarejo which began producing in March 2009
- Continued success at San Bartolomé, the world's largest pure silver mine
- Operating cash flow emphasis at the site level—$100 million estimated for 2009
- Construction of final tailings facility at Kensington, which is expected to begin producing in the second half of 2010