

Coeur to Sell Joaquin Project to Pan American Silver

All amounts are expressed in US$ unless otherwise indicated. This news release contains forward-looking information about expected future events. Readers should refer to the "Cautionary Statement" at the end of this news release.

Chicago, Illinois and Vancouver, British Columbia - January 13, 2017 - Coeur Mining, Inc. ("Coeur") (NYSE: CDE) and Pan American Silver Corp. ("Pan American") (NASDAQ: PAAS) (TSX: PAA) today announced a definitive agreement under which Pan American will acquire 100% of Coeur's Joaquin project, located in the Santa Cruz province of southern Argentina.

Under the terms of the agreement, consideration payable to Coeur will include $15 million in cash and $10 million in Pan American stock. Coeur will also retain a 2.0% net smelter returns royalty ("NSR") on the Joaquin project. The transaction is expected to close in the first quarter of 2017, subject to customary closing conditions.

"This transaction reflects our strategy to monetize non-core assets and redeploy the proceeds into higher-quality, higher-return, nearer-term growth opportunities. By retaining a 2.0% NSR, Coeur will also retain upside exposure to Joaquin. Together with the sale of the past-producing Martha Mine last year, this transaction will allow us to realize holding cost savings and represents a reduction in the Company's overall geographic footprint," said Mitchell J. Krebs, Coeur's President and Chief Executive Officer.

"The Joaquin project is well-suited for our Manantial Espejo operation in Santa Cruz. The project is located approximately 145 kilometres from our mine, well within trucking distance, and our plant will have available capacity when open-pit mining is completed, which is expected to be in early 2017. We have begun work on technical studies for the Joaquin project to determine how much of the high-grade portion of Joaquin's mineralized material can be economically treated at Manantial Espejo. Adding high-grade satellite deposits that are prevalent in the region around our Manantial Espejo mine is an effective way to extract additional value from our investment in the Province of Santa Cruz," said Michael Steinmann, President and CEO of Pan American Silver.
